ond precinct, which is abolished, is in West Thirty-seventh street. It is supposed that it will become headquarters for the traffic division and the home of Traffic Squad B, now in West Thirtieth street. The territory of the Twenty-second precinct is divided by yesterday's order between the Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth precincts. The territory of the Twenty-third will now be bounded by the North River, Twenty-seventh street, Fifth avenue and Forty-second street. The Twenty-fifth precinct will be bounded by the East River, Twenty-seventh street, Fifth avenue and Forty-second street. The old dividing line was Fourth avenue, the new line is Fifth avenue.

27 Patrolmen Transferred.

Twenty-seven patrolmen were transferred last night from the West Thirtieth street station to East Thirty-fifth street, probably for the purpose of strensthening the latter precinct because of the consolidation. It was noted, however, that several patrolmen of the West Thirtieth street precinct have been charged, not formally as yet, with taking money from the furriers.
